

Biographical Information

Carl Rountree

U.S. Department of the Interior

Bureau of Land Management • Arizona

Associate State Director

Education: 1970 B.A. Political Science, The Citadel, Charleston, SC
1975 M.A. City & Regional Planning, Clemson University, Clemson, SC

Experience:

30 years of professional land use and natural resource planning and management experience, working for local, state and federal government agencies with 20 years of increasing supervisory and leadership responsibilities.

08/73 - 01/75	Project Director, Clemson Architectural Foundation, Clemson, SC
02/75 - 09/77	Land Use Planner, BCD Council of Governments, Charleston, SC
10/77 - 12/80	Land Use Planner, Forest Service, Washington, D.C.
01/81 - 01/85	Community Planner, BLM, Sacramento, CA
01/85 - 12/92	Chief, Planning & Environmental Coordination, BLM, Sacramento, CA
12/92 - 04/95	Chief, Branch of Biological Resources, BLM, Sacramento, CA
04/95 - 08/97	Assistant Director, Ecosystem Science Div., BLM, Sacramento, CA
08/97 - 03/01	Deputy State Director, Natural Resources, BLM, Sacramento, CA
03/01 - Pres.	Associate State Director, BLM, Phoenix, AZ

Professional Affiliations

- Post Member of the American Planning Association, the California Planning Roundtable, the National Association of Environmental Professionals, Western Chapter of the Wildlife Society
- U.S. Delegate to the People's Republic of China to exchange information on natural resource management and land use planning practices within the U.S. and China
- Instructor, Environmental Law Institute, Washington, D.C., "Environmental Policy: Development and Implementation," USDI-BLM Environmental Law Course
- Guest lecturer for national and state conferences of the American Planning Association, the National Association of Environmental Professionals, The Wildlife Society, and the National Academy of Science
- Past Chair, Executive Committee, California Biodiversity Council

Personal Information & Interests

- Honorable military discharge; helicopter pilot, Republic of Vietnam
- Interests include: running, hiking, backpacking and soccer